

350 YEARS AGO, the Pilgrims set foot on Plymouth Rock - and a new way of life began. On board the Mayflower, the little band of Pilgrims signed a compact, agreeing to form a local government for the new town of Plymouth, Massachusetts, and to abide by its laws. In the Mayflower Compact, we see the early flowering of democracy in America. As we observe Thanksgiving Day -- yet another legacy from our Pilgrim forefathers -- we can indeed be thankful for our proud heritage, for our American way of life, for freedom and its blessings. Let us then be humbly grateful, and let us reaffirm our faith in freedom, with our determination to preserve and cherish it, forevermore.

ON THE BIG 'EYE'

Already on the map for numerous things, Cameron is going before the television world in Central Texas and perhaps nationwide starting next month.

Yoe High School's band, directed by Dalton Harbers, will perform prior to the Dallas-Washington pro football game 2:45 p.m. Sunday, December 6.

Gametime is 3 p.m. for the Dallas portion of the TV doubleheader, which Harbers said should allow the 6-minute YHS march routine exposure before the nation. Only catch might be if the earlier game extends beyond the pre-game performance of the Yoe band and the Dallas game is cut in after the opening kickoff.

Nevertheless, it is excellent exposure for the band and Cameron before 40,000 to 50,000 people and most likely before millions of others.

More information will be forthcoming on the band's appearance, but the 6-minute routine will include a fanfare and three march numbers.

We are advised also that dance groups for Cameron's Folk Fete are scheduled to appear on four Central Texas channels in early June, 1971, prior to the second Folk Fete during that month.

Co-chairmen Mrs. Perry Holder and Miss Mildred Thornton advise guest appearances are scheduled on Austin, Waco, Temple and Bryan stations.

Their co-operation last year helped publicize various segments of the first Folk Fete, which attracted 4,000 to 5,000, a number which could easily double next June.

111-111-111

Now it may be possible Cameron representatives could receive greater TV exposure at one time than these, but it is difficult to imagine how.

Thus far, dance groups have appeared at Salado, Temple Junior College, State Fair of Texas, Seton Hall and perhaps other attractions since the Folk Fete last June.

Cameron's image in fact is being presented live and in broadcast wherever people congregate to see talent, either in ethnic dance or marching music.

This is not to mention what the print media carried in Folk Fete coverage last year, the example one promising more favorable coverage next June.

111-111-111

Point is literally hundreds of people are telling the Cameron story in a way it will be remembered, attracting the

UNITED FUND TOTALS $7,542

Cash contributions and pledges for the Cameron United Fund now total $7,542, according to UF chairman Bernay Dusek.

Contributions from several local industries are expected to boost the total along with a number of pledge cards that are still out Dusek said.

He asked workers who still have cards to please turn them in with a report, so the drive can be completed.

Milam 4-H Team In Chicago For National Contest

Four Milam County boys will be representing Texas in Chicago this weekend when the National 4-H Poultry Judging Contest opens.

Judging teams from 15 states will be participating in the national contest.

Milam team members are Clyde Jistel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jistel; Joseph Jistel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jistel; Joseph Vaculin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vaculin; and Daniel Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson.

Fred Schuetze of Laredo, former Milam assistant county agent and now Webb County Agent, returned to Cameron this week to accompany the team to Chicago. Schuetze is coach for the team which won first place in state competition.

The group left Wednesday and will return home on Monday.

Rubella Clinics Set For County Children

Registration forms are being distributed throughout Milam County elementary schools for the free clinics to immunize children against Rubella (German or 3-day measles).

Clinics will be held in Cameron and Rockdale on Sunday, Dec. 6 from 1 until 5 p.m. and all parents are urged to bring their youngsters between the ages of 1 through 10 to one of the clinics that day.

In Cameron the free vaccine will be given at Simon-George Hall, and at Rockdale in the elementary school cafeteria. The local clinics are part of a national campaign to protect expectant mothers against the disease, which affects unborn children. In addition to miscarriages and infant deaths, it can cause blindness, deafness, brain damage and malformations of the heart, bone, and liver, health officials state.

The clinics are sponsored by the Milam County Medical Society directed by the Texas State Department of Health. Dr. C. G. Swift, co-chairman for the Milam clinics, said the vaccine will be administered with the virtually painless "jet injector."

Dr. Swift said rubella should not be confused with measles commonly known as "red" or "big" measles, which has been the target for a previous immunization campaign.

"German measles is usually a mild, easily treatable disease," Swift said, "but the danger of rubella is in the defects it may cause to an unborn child if the mother catches it during early pregnancy. Research has shown that in 70 to 90% of the cases the unborn child will be marred."

EXCEPTIONS

The vaccine is recommended for all children 1 through 10 even though a child has already had the disease.

Exceptions to this are children who:

1. Have already received the rubella vaccine;

2. Are allergic to chicken or duck eggs or feathers, or neomycin;

3. Are sick with fever on the day of the clinic;

4. Have received a live virus vaccination such as smallpox, polio, measles within the four weeks before the clinic;

5. Are being treated for cancer or leukemia.

The last major epidemic of rubella occurred in 1964. Health officials note that with the number of cases peaking every six to nine years another epidemic is expected between 1970 and 1973.

Since it is not known what effects the vaccine might have on an unborn child, the vaccine is not advised for women who are pregnant or of child-bearing age. With enough children being immunized against rubella the threat to expectant mothers is greatly reduced, officials said.

Although no charge will be made for the vaccine, contributions will be accepted from those able to help cover the costs of the clinics.

Would Mean $10+ Increase In Milam County

Hearings on auto insurance rates scheduled in Dallas and Houston next week will probably mean a hike in cost of coverage for drivers, many of whom feel the present rates are beyond the average budget. In Milam County a Class 2C auto insurance bill can run as high as $534.

Insurance companies are asking for a 23.4 percent increase to be effective January 1, however local insurers say this would not be an across-the-board percentage increase. Actual rate increases will vary according to the rating territory, types and model years of vehicles, uses of the vehicles and ages of the drivers.

If granted by the State Board of Insurance as requested the rate hike would amount to about a $10 increase for minimum basic auto insurance in Milam County.

Reportedly the Texas insurance industry has requested that bodily injury liability rates increase 1.5 percent, property damage rates 30.9 percent, bodily injury and property damage combined increase 15.3 percent, collision coverage 28.5 percent, and full-coverage comprehensive (fire, theft, wind and hail, etc. insurance) rates 32.5 percent.

Under present rates, an under 25, single, male driver of a late model, low priced sports car in Milam County pays $451 a year for liability, comprehensive and $50 deductible collision insurance. A driver with two speeding violations pays $503. The rate increase could mean an additional $100 cost for this driver.

Insurance for a late model, medium price family car with the same coverage averages $190 a year in Milam County. The requested rate increase would raise this total about $30.

State Rep. Dan Kubiak, who opposes any rate increase, said this week that the insurance industry bases its plan on "a reasonable rate of return on investment." They are asking for a guaranteed profit of 11.7 percent of net worth after taxes and not including investment income.

"The industry, in effect, says that the auto insurance business is risky and barely profitable and insurers should not be forced to include their investment income directly in the auto insurance rate-making formula," Kubiak said. "From the facts we have in our office we disagree," he said. "We feel that investment income should be included and that automobile insurance rates should be stabilized."

State Sen. Oscar Mauzy of Dallas and State Rep. Joe Allen of Baytown have announced intentions to fight the proposed increases. AFL-CIO President Hank Brown of Austin is reported to be considering filing suit in an attempt to stop the insurance board from approving the requested rates.

Rep. Allen said the plan would have "the effect of forcing the policyholders of Texas to subsidize speculative investment by insurance companies."

Sen. Mauzy said the rate-of-return plan would "guarantee insurance companies operating in Texas a profit 90 percent higher than these same companies have earned in the open market in the rest of the nation."

Texas insurance industry spokesmen have said the full increase is needed to insure that an adequate supply of insurance is available.

Area Schools Set Holiday Schedule

Cameron public schools and St. Anthony School dismissed for the Thanksgiving holidays Wednesday afternoon and classes will resume Monday, November 30.

Students in all Cameron schools will be dismissed for the Christmas holidays Tuesday, December 22 and will return to class Monday, January 4.

Buckholts School students will start Christmas holidays on December 19, returning Jan. 4. In Rogers and Milano schools, holidays will be from Dec. 22 to Jan. 4.

'Financing Is Tough' Industrial Group Told

Financing industry in small communities is getting tougher and a state financing program is badly needed, participants agreed at the end of the seventh annual Central Texas Industrial Development Conference held at Baylor University.

Narvie L. Caperton, Cameron Industrial Foundation president, and Mayor E. A. Perrin were among some 120 civic and business - industrial leaders from a five-county area attending the conference.

The participants responded to a special invitation issued by Gov. Preston Smith making it the largest in the seven-year history.

The conference, hosted by Sen. Murray Watson and coordinated by the Texas Industrial Commission with the assistance of the Waco Chamber of Commerce culminated with the consensus that financing industry in small communities is getting tougher and that a state financing program is badly needed, according to Jim Harwell, executive director of TIC, who handled the wrap-up session for the conference.

Harwell and Bill Davis, assistant director of TIC were two of the program participants.

Davis, in his keynote speech said that 8 out of 10 industries today expect communities to offer a package deal, that is land, buildings and a financial arrangement that is attractive to the industry.

Robert Seal, another participant from the Republic National Bank in Dallas said that commercial banks are not interested in long-term financing.

Jim Camp, assistant vice president of the American National Insurance Company in Galveston said insurance companies in general were short on funds and did not care to participate in financing industry for communities under 100,000 population.

Camp was one of the participants

who suggested a need for state industrial financing program.

A representative from the SBA in Dallas, Paul Martin, remarked that recent publicity concerning SBA was out of funds is not entirely true. Martin said SBA is still accepting loan applications and processing them for approval. Additional funds are available as current loans are being repaid. SBA hopes to get their loan funds increased from 1.9 to 2.2 billion in the future, Martin said.

Marvin Hagemeyer, field coordinator for the Economic Development Administration said EDA has funds and is willing to work with small communities. However, he pointed out that the paper work and time involved is not easy.

EDA is willing to provide financing when no conventional source is available, he said.

Elbert Morrow, a bond attorney in Dallas spoke on the application of industrial revenue bonds under the 1963-20 Program for industrial financing. Morrow said that he too, felt a state program of industrial financing was necessary to create more funds needed in industrial development.

Two Choctaw entries shown by Mrs. J. D. Moore and Anton Anderle were selected Grand and Reserve Champions respectively, from the 65 entries at the 10th annual County Pecan Show held in Cameron.

Grand and Reserve Champion entries in the Native division were shown by Mrs. Matt Zarosky, Sr. and Mrs. Jerry Kostroun respectively.

Judges Dan Hanna and George Ray McEachern from A&M complimented the arrangement and decorating committees for setting up an attractive show. According to the judges, the quality of the pecans generally were good especially in the Choctaw, Mohawk, and Desirable classes.

It was difficult to place the 3 entries in these three classes according to the judges. The size of the Native pecans were small, but the quality was good.

The judges placed the pecans according to size, percent kernel, kernel appearance and shell appearance. These characteristics are improved through orchard management, according to the judges.

All Blue ribbon winners are invited to enter the Regional Pecan Show to be held at the Towne and Country Shopping Center, Temple, on December 16, 17, 18, 1970.

POW TALK - Interest in Vietnam Prisoner of War conditions rose for Yoe High students following a talk before Honor Society members Tuesday by Mrs. W. A. Hoffman of Washington, D.C., mother of Lt. Arthur Hoffman who is imprisoned in Hanoi, N. Vietnam. She described a diet of pig fat and pumpkin seed soup, torture and solitary confinement that has been the daily fare for some prisoners for more than 5 years. Mrs. Hoffman talked individually to Honor Society students (left to right) Randy Tumlinson, John Ben Sutter, Alva Ray Mullinax, Harry Perrin and Edward Whitley. The students distributed letters in school Wednesday asking world attention on conditions in North Vietnamese prisons.

Support American POW's...

Yoe High School's National Honor Society is taking the area lead for writing letters to Hanoi concerning conditions of 1,500 American POW's.

These youngsters are to be congratulated. This is constructive involvement.

They, among thousands in these United States recommend:

ONE--Addressing your letter to Mr. Xuan Thuy, delegation of Democratic Republic of Vietnam, Paris, France.

TWO--Addressing your envelope to Mrs. J. A. Singleton (POW/MIA/Xuan Thuy), State Co-ordinator, 1110 Joy Meadow Drive, Dallas, Texas 75-218.

Urging:

--Identifying all POW's they hold.

--Releasing all sick and injured POW's to a neutral power.

--Allowing impartial inspections of POW facilities.

--Allow free exchange of mail by POW's and members of their families.

The North Vietnamese government is responsive to world opinion. Indeed, they play upon world opinion as masters in the expertise of Communist dogma.

To top it off, they share an Oriental disregard for the value of individuals, finding it difficult to believe American people are concerned about servicemen lost behind their lines for as long as five years.

This is an understandable, but mistaken judgment of American values. And we are able to prove our belief in individual worth by writing a letter to Xuan Thuy saying so.

YHS's Honor Society contributes a valuable service to this country and better world understanding by this leadership. They deserve the Milam area's support.

At Home, Where It Counts...

Finding out what people really believe in, if anything anymore, is fascinating.

Your Herald's mail of recent weeks suggests that Texas public officials, including those newly elected, acknowledge an informed public is essential.

Herald efforts to inform its readership electorate the past 12 years are thus drawing public-interest responses.

We refer to the some four candidate sections run while weekly through 1968, on candidates of both parties, in primary and general elections. When there is a limited field, we follow campaigns by publishing candidate statements in contested races.

This we did as a semi-weekly during 1970 general elections.

We refer to the response this effort elicited during October and November, this year. Letters acknowledging this effort have come from Governor Smith, Lt-Gov. Ben

Barnes, Senator-elect Lloyd Bentsen and State Rep. Dan Kubiak.

The role of the newspaper, not just this one, has also been noted by the good offices of Senator John Tower and George Bush.

If public opinion polls are an indicator, the electorate of this country wants more information and less oratory. The electorate is generally better informed and is better qualified to make decisions. Regard for issues worthy of public answer is formidable. The public desires to reform our political structure into a responsive instrument for solutions.

As a non-metro newspaper, your Herald has pioneered in this effort. A dozen years some regarded the effort laughable, even partisan. But evidence suggests our effort to serve you, the public, is being recognized, finally, where it counts, at home.

TEA Heads Set Priority Goals For Public Schools

By Vern Sanford

Heads of the Texas Education Agency have set priority goals for public schools during the next two years. They estimate additional state and local costs at more than $362 million.

Highest priority must be assigned to implementing those major educational acts of the 1969 Legislature, says Dr. J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education.

He listed these acts as the 1969 salary compensation (long-range teacher pay raise) plan, a kindergarten program for five-year-olds, comprehensive special education programs, expansion of technical - vocational programs and refinement of the teacher retirement act. Programs are projected over three to seven-year period.

As desirable as new or accelerated programs may be, says Edgar, the State Board of Education feels more experience is needed with the 1969 acts and more opportunity should be allowed to invest available resources in presently - authorized goals.

"Next priority," says the Commissioner, "goes to carrying out recommendations of a committee studying changes in school finance formulas, with a view to equalizing funds assigned as the local share of foundation costs."

More than $2 billion will be spent for public elementary and secondary education this year. Estimate for next year is $2.6 billion.

About 2,728,000 pupils now are enrolled, and 2,760,000 will be in classes next year.

Cost of existing programs for next year alone will increase $156 million, while new programs will require an estimated $25 million more.

COURTS SPEAK

Texas Supreme Court will hear arguments on January 13 as to whether a narcotics case can be under joint jurisdiction of criminal and probate courts through the mental health code. In the case at point, a mother tried to commit her daughter who had been convicted of a narcotics violation to a hospital for addiction treatment.

In other recent cases the High Court:

One proposed an expanded public staff for lawmakers and a health or first aid station for the capitol. Another urged an end to the practice of legislators' lending their names to clients or defendants in legal cases just to delay trial.

On December 9, all sub-panel findings will go to the full committee of 150 named by House Speaker Gus Mutscher.

OIL ALLOWABLE CUT

State Railroad Commission ordered a cut in December statewide oil allowable to 83.5 per cent of potential, from the high 87.3 per cent factor.

Action followed four consecutive monthly increases. December limit would allow a maximum production of 3,815,992 barrels of crude daily. That is a reduction from this month's 3,954,193 - barrel maximum.

Three of the 14 big crude buyers requested additional allowable for December. Ten wanted the same figure and one less. U. S. Bureau of Mines forecast a 3,525,000 - barrel daily demand for December. Written nominations by major purchasers totaled 3,425,531 barrels.

* Slated arguments for January 20 in a $35,000 damage lawsuit brought by parents of a young Houston boy struck by a car on Galveston Beach four and a half years ago.

* Directed the Houston Tour and Charter Service Inc. to stop out of city bus routes operating without a Railroad Commission certificate.

* Directed retrial of a Wheeler County case involving whether a Texas Tech student received "general injury" in an oil rig job accident.

* Ruled that Maverick County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 (or other political subdivisions) are without power to levy a special assessment against veterans land tract forfelted to the state by the buyer.

* Found that an Arizona carpet firm which did business with a Texas manufacturer on building projects in the state can be sued in state courts for debt.

LAWMAKER AID, CURBS

Subcommittees of a blue-ribbon committee studying legislators' duties, responsibilities, compensation and ethics are beginning to formulate recommendations.

CRUDE PRICE HIKE

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes told the federal Office of Emergency Preparedness that an announcement by two major oil companies of intention to raise crude oil price 25 cents a barrel is "completely justified."

Lieutenant Governor said reserves of petroleum are lower than during wartime, and a price increase is mandatory if they are to be increased.

ALTERATION TAX POSSIBLE

You can be taxed for alteration charges on clothing where the charge is made at time of purchase, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has held.

However, Calvert said, charges are not subject to sales tax when they are not part of the sale.

"If the alteration is made on a garment prior to acceptance by the customer, the alteration charge is considered a service which is part of the sale and the charge for such alteration is taxable to the customer," said Calvert in an interpretation of sales tax provisions. "Alteration charges on clothing are not taxable when not a part of a sale."

Today less than 30% of the United States population lives in rural areas. Less than 25% of America's 54 million rural residents live on farms and earn their livelihood from agriculture.

The value of United States farm real estate was set at $208.9 billion for year ending March 1, 1970. Per acre value averaged $193 ranging from $36 in Wyoming to $1,028 in New Jersey.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

You know, from time to time in between international crises and on-the-farm obligations, like the time I rode my tractor eight hours straight without stopping trying to get a crop planted before it rained and made it, in fact, made it three months before it rained and the seeds never did sprout, anyway, in my spare time I have devoted a considerable amount of time to trying to figure out a way to play football with both teams winning every game.

What I'm doing is trying to preserve the sport. Like it is, with every game played, from junior high school through college to the professionals, unless it's a tie, half the fans always leave the stands disappointed if not heart-broken. The game is skating on thin ice, so to speak, like the coach who said they were trying to make a political football out of a basketball scandal.

Think, how long would Gun Smoke last if half its audience was always disappointed at the way it ended? Football is a great spectator sport. I follow it on television myself, but if they don't figure out some way to keep fans on both sides happy, it's in trouble.

Regrettably I have never been able to figure out how to change the game so everybody can always come away happy and victorious, both bands playing and everybody slapping everybody else on the back, but I have now done the next best thing.

I have discovered the people who can.

They are the chairman of the Republican Party and the chairman of the Democratic Party.

I read in four different newspapers that each one of these men has claimed that his party won the November elections, and they've made such a good case that nobody in the country is sure which one is right. As a result, everybody thinks his side won, nobody lost, and everybody came away from the polls victorious.

I know when I'm out-classed. I turn my football problem over to them.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Gov. Urges Changes To Stop Traffic Deaths

AUSTIN

State officials, headed by Gov. Preston Smith himself, came down hard on the need for significant changes in the law as it applies to traffic safety here this week during the Second Annual Governor's Public Support Conference on Traffic Safety.

Traffic safety "is a problem which outranks crimes such as murder, rape, assault, and civil disorder by at least ten to one in the number of victims," Governor Smith told the group.

"It is time now for us and our fellow Texans to demand the legislation necessary to eliminate the bloodshed, the heart-break and the tragedy caused by careless and irresponsible driving."

The Governor's appeal was re-emphasized by two other officials, Col. Wilson Speir, director of the Department of Public Safety, and Ross Rommel, the state's traffic safety administrator. Both also pointed to the convening of the 62nd Legislature in January, and the need for positive legislative action.

The primary target of the Governor's traffic safety legislative recommendations appear to be the drunk driver, who the Governor said is responsible for one-half the traffic fatalities in Texas. But he was quick to point out that the drunk driver he wants removed from the highway is the problem drinker.

The best analyses information available indicates that less than seven per cent of the more than six million licensed drivers in Texas are responsible for the human toll said to drunk drivers.

Col. Speir, the state's top law enforcement officials, also expressed his concern about the drunk driver.

"Of cardinal importance is a change in the laws that relate to drunk drivers," Col. Speir said. "Enforcement officers in Texas are frustrated by provisions of the current law which enable drunk drivers to keep on driving."

Editor

Dear Mr. Luecke:

I should like to call the attention of your readers to a very special television program, "To All The World's Children," which will be telecast over ABC on Friday evening, November 27th at 7:30 p.m. (6:30 Central Time). This moving and comprehensive film about children of Kenya, Paraguay and Ceylon is a brilliant study of three different cultures, the role of children in each and the role of UNICEF (The United Nations Children's Fund) in all of them.

We who are actively engaged in helping UNICEF help the children of the world are particularly proud to be associated with a television program of such high artistic, educational, social and entertainment value which, for once, is being programmed perfectly for family viewing.

Sincerely,

"Low Down" FROM THE Congressional Record

By JOE CRUMP

(A Column for Readers Who Haven't Time to Review the Congressional Record Daily)

TAXPAYERS SUBSIDIZE SHIFTY FOUNDATION

REP. W.G. BRAY (Ind.) "...The American taxpayer does not know it, but he is subsidizing the rantings and ravings of one of the foulest, most inflammatory revolutionaries of the new left."

"Jerry Rubin, member of the infamous Chicago Seven and one of those convicted of conspiracy in crossing State lines to incite riot, stands to make no one knows how many thousands of dollars both from his speeches and public appearances, and from his book...Let me quote a few of Rubin's statements from the book: 'To steal from the rich is a sacred and religious act...Burn Down the Schools. Two hundred psychological terrorists could destroy any major university -- without firing a shot.'"

"In 1969, Rubin's wife, who goes by the name of Nancy Kurshan, filled out some routine IRS forms that led to official IRS recognition of the "SOCIAL EDUCATION FUND," as a charitable, tax-exempt organization. The "foundation" said the untaxable fund and its income would be used--

Exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals.

"On June 11, 1969, the trust was amended so it could also be referred to as the "JERRY RUBIN FUND." Grantor and sole trustee is Nancy Kurshan, Rubin's wife.

"Advantages of such status to Rubin are many. Actual income is safe from STATE and FEDERAL income taxes...

"And as has also been pointed out, Rubin's income going into the foundation would protect him from possible damage suits arising from disturbances he might have caused. Technically, he could claim to have no money at all--and under the law he would be correct.

"As the Internal Revenue Code now stands, believe it or not, all this is perfectly legal. The most the IRS can do--and are doing--at this time is to see if Rubin has violated a provision of the law requiring annual reports of income and expenditures...

"No American should have to subsidize Jerry Rubin. Our taxes pay for many things, but they do not have to pay to support a litany of hate, violence, and outright incitement to revolution..."

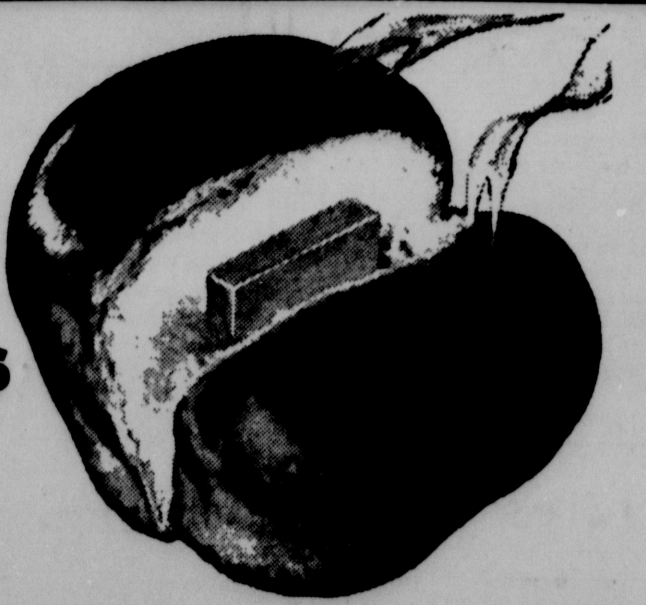

REP. R.H. ICHORD (Mo.) "...The foundation's first annual report of income and expenditures was due last May 15, but IRS officials say they have no record of its submission.

"It is my understanding that the regulations do authorize the revocation of the tax-exempt status for failure to file timely reports..."

Temple Med Group Nixes Newton Hospital Project

A committee of Bell County medical personnel reviewed an application by Newton Memorial Hospital for a Hill-Burton Fund expansion grant and reported the project was "inconsistent with overall regional planning efforts."

The committee, appointed by the Central Texas Council of Governments, included Dr. John Bryson, chairman, Health Center in Temple, Dr. Charles Livingston, Temple VA Hospital administrator, Dr. Bill Linette, Temple general practitioner, Lewis Ramey, administrator, Santa Fe Hospital, Temple, and Dick Epperson, administrator, King's Daughters Hospital, Temple.

Request for assistance in a planned $1,200,000 expansion project had been made by Newton Memorial Hospital to Hill-Burton Funds through the Texas State Department of Health. The review by CTCOG is a recent requirement by state agencies for public projects that will effect regional planning.

Milam County is in the Central Texas Council region, but is not a member of the council or represented on the CTCOG board. The review committee report said the group had met twice, one time prior to the inspection visit in Cameron. The committee spent one day in Cameron investigating the proposed project with approximately half the day spent with Dr. Newton and looking at the Newton Memorial Hospital facilities. The remainder of the day was spent visiting local doctors and the administrator and personnel at St. Edward Hospital.

The committee report said in part: "After much study and evaluation found the proposed project to be inconsistent with other regional planning developments in the Central Texas Region. The committee felt that the project represented a duplication of efforts by the Newton Memorial Hospital. The newly constructed St. Edward Hospital will provide many of the services proposed by the Newton Memorial Hospital Project. The project as presently proposed is inconsistent with total regional health care efforts."

Findings of the committee were forwarded by the Central Texas Council of Governments to state and federal agencies.

Your Serviceman —

RAY A. KROPP

ALCONBURY, England — U. S. Air Force Major Ray A. Kropp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Kropp, Rt. 1, Thorndale, has arrived for duty at Alconbury RAF Station, England.

Major Kropp, a fighter-interceptor pilot, is assigned to a unit of the U. S. Air Forces in Europe. He previously served at Tan Son Nhut AB, Vietnam. He graduated in 1949 from Thorndale High School and received his B. S. degree in education in 1954 from Texas A&M University.

Saccharin Use Is Safe, Study Shows

Saccharin poses no hazards in the quantities it is likely to be used, reports Minnie Bell Extension specialist in family life education at Texas A&M University.

The information is the result of a study on saccharin usage by a committee of the National Academy of Science and the National Research Council.

According to the committee reports, Miss Bell says, a safe level of about 12 to 18 quarter grain tablets per day may be used by adults. Actual usage is likely to fall far below the safety standard.

The use of saccharin covers an 80 year period. During World War I, heavy use of the sweetener in England and Germany has produced no adverse effects.

A recent cancer mortality study involving over 21,000 diabetics using saccharin showed no increased risk of cancer over a period of 28 years, the report showed.

Miss Bell added that the committee did recommend further investigation of specific items related to saccharin's long-term effects.

Mexican Baptists Say 'Thanks' For Dedication Help

The congregation of the new Primera Iglesia Bautista expressed their appreciation to all friends of the church who helped make last Sunday's dedication a success.

The new church, located south of Cameron across from the radio station, was originally the Burlington Baptist Church. The building was moved to Cameron and completely remodeled, with brick exterior and modern furnishings.

A spokesman for the congregation said the help of Rev. James E. Lafferty, First Baptist pastor, was especially appreciated.

Texas Trees In Quantity

Texas has lots of most everything including trees.

The average person can probably name 15 to 20 species native to our state. First named could well be oak. There are 18 types of oaks in Texas. Then there is pine. We have seven varieties in the state. You might overlook such native Texas trees as paw-paw, two-wing silverbell, sassafras or fringetree, but you certainly would think of pecan, mesquite and elm.

A Bulletin of the Texas Forest Service of Texas A&M, "Forest Trees of Texas", lists 138 different types of trees native to our state.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Bertram S. Brown, M.D.
Director
National Institute of Mental Health

Schizophrenia

This disease, or group of diseases, commonly known as the mental illness which involves "split-personality," is certainly one of the most serious disorders of our times.

More than 200,000 Americans are presently hospitalized with schizophrenia, occupying nearly half of the beds in the nation's mental hospitals.

Schizophrenia costs the United States some $14 billion each year, according to estimates of the National Association for Mental Health.

These figures tell only part of the story of the magnitude of schizophrenia and the suffering it causes.

Because the disease usually begins in late adolescence or early adulthood and may result in repeated hospitalizations or chronic institutionalization throughout an individual's most productive years, its costs in terms of personal suffering and loss of productivity are devastating.

This is why we have mounted an increasing attack through research on schizophrenia and why we recently held an international conference, in Washington, of nearly 100 of the world's leading experts on schizophrenia.

The purpose of the meeting was to identify research findings which have relevance for the actual treatment of patients. The results of the conference will help guide and improve clinical practices and treatment.

Although our knowledge is far from complete, we do know a good deal about the causes of schizophrenia today. New techniques have made it possible for many victims to leave mental institutions and return to their communities.

We must, therefore, find out how we can detect and treat schizophrenia in its early stages. The recent conference made an important contribution to this and other aspects of the problem.

NEW TECHNOLOGY

TEXAS POWER & LIGHT COMPANY
A tax-paying, investor-owned electric utility

In order to continue to provide reliable electric service to all customers, TP&L is constantly seeking ways to improve construction techniques. New methods help improve service and help TP&L keep electric rates at the lowest possible level.

However, like its customers, TP&L is feeling the money pinch, too. Increases in the cost of borrowing money for expansion, increased costs of materials, increased fuel costs for generating electricity, increased taxes and TP&L wage increases have placed a heavy burden on the Company to maintain electric rates at the level of the 1950's.

Nevertheless, in the future the Company pledges to provide an ample supply of electric power for all customers—at a continued reasonable cost.

Western Artist At Fort Fisher

Frank O. Lyon, western sculptor from Taos, N.M., and friend of Cameron artist James Brock, will be in Cameron during a three-day showing of Lyon's work at Waco's Fort Fisher, Texas Ranger Museum.

Lyon opened the first bronze foundry in the New Mexico art colony three years ago and is casting bronzes sculpted by Brock, who also is learning the process.

Lyon will be a guest at a benefit sale of his sculpture at Waco Texas Ranger Museum, December 4-5-6.

Twenty-five percent of all cash sales will go to the museum fund. Lyon will explain his work as a sculptor and bronze founder during the three-day show.

Lyon was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., and brought up in Connecticut. He has worked as a blacksmith, master gunsmith and with metals of all kinds. He studied at Whitney School of Art in New Haven, Conn., and Los Angeles Chouinard Art Institute.

He works in canvas, stone, wood and sheet metal, but finds bronze sculpture's versatility a favorite material.

His Western sculpture follows the line of Brock's work, cowboys, Indians and Western animals.

Having sold works for a number of years, Lyon has a permanent gallery, "The Golden Lyon" in Taos. His work is on display throughout the country.

On the ceiling of Sistine Chapel, Michelangelo brings to life some of the most spectacular Old Testament depictions. In one panel portraying the Creation, he shows God reaching out His powerful right hand to Adam, thereby sending out that necessary spark of life which began the history of man. In this familiar scene, the figure of God emanates such power and force that it seems to dominate the rest of the picture. It even diminishes the agony and passion of Adam, the embodiment of longing, searching and lost mankind. Yes, if we were to examine the picture more fully, we would see that not only is God reaching out to Adam, but Adam is also reaching out to touch God. He is virtually straining every fiber in his body to affect this two-way interchange. Michelangelo said it all with the deft strokes of his brush. All too often we are aware that the huge, powerful, healing hand of God, is reaching out to us without realizing that His hand won't reach all the way. Just like Adam, we must reach out in return. God's open hand is waiting --- where is yours?

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

Unique among the scientific activities in the southwestern part of the nation is the production of human immunizing biologics by the Texas State Department of Health.

The Biologics Production Division of the State Health Department laboratory is one of thirteen major producers of human immunizing agents in the United States--nine commercial manufacturers and four states' health department laboratories.

Most states buy immunizing biologics from one of the nine commercial producers. The only state health department laboratories which produce some or all of their immunization products are Michigan, Illinois, and Massachusetts.

The Texas laboratory furnishes several vaccines for public health immunization programs within the state. In the event of epidemics or natural disaster, the lab maintains a large stock of finished vaccine such as small-ture instructed the lab to prepare rabies vaccine, diphtheria toxoid, and typhoid vaccine.

Biologics are sent to city and county health officers throughout the state for use in low income groups or to combat existing or pending epidemics.

The Biologics Production Division of the State Laboratory operates under the regulations of the National Institute of Health in Washington, D. C. The products are given extensive testing in the Austin laboratory and are then submitted to the control laboratory in Washington for final testing before they are released for use.

All biologics, including those offered for sale by the commercial manufacturers, must undergo this process.

You should see him in person.

Milam 4-H Team In Chicago For National Contest

Four Milam County boys will be representing Texas in Chicago this weekend when the National 4-H Poultry Judging Contest opens.

Judging teams from 15 states will be participating in the national contest.

Milam team members are Clyde Jistel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jistel; Joseph Jistel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jistel; Joseph Vaculin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vaculin; and Daniel Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson.

Fred Schuetze of Laredo, former Milam assistant county agent and now Webb County Agent, returned to Cameron this week to accompany the team to Chicago. Schuetze is coach for the team which won first place in state competition. The group left Wednesday and will return home on Monday.

Rubella Clinics Set For County Children

Registration forms are being distributed throughout Milam County elementary schools for the free clinics to immunize children against Rubella (German or 3-day measles).

Clinics will be held in Cameron and Rockdale on Sunday, Dec. 6 from 1 until 5 p.m. and all parents are urged to bring their youngsters between the ages of 1 through 10 to one of the clinics that day.

In Cameron the free vaccine will be given at Simon-George Hall, and at Rockdale in the elementary school cafeteria.

The local clinics are part of a national campaign to protect expectant mothers against the disease, which affects unborn children. In addition to miscarriages and infant deaths, it can cause blindness, deafness, brain damage and malformations of the heart, bone, and liver, health officials state.

The clinics are sponsored by the Milam County Medical Society directed by the Texas State Department of Health. Dr. C. G. Swift, co-chairman for the Milam clinics, said the vaccine will be administered with the virtually painless "jet injector."

Dr. Swift said rubella should not be confused with measles commonly known as "red" or "big" measles, which has been the target for a previous immunization campaign.

"German measles is usually a mild, easily treatable disease," Swift said, "but the danger of rubella is in the defects it may cause to an unborn child if the mother catches it during early pregnancy. Research has shown that in 70 to 90% of the cases the unborn child will be marred."

EXCEPTIONS

The vaccine is recommended for all children 1 through 10 even though a child has already had the disease.

Exceptions to this are children who:

1. Have already received the rubella vaccine;

2. Are allergic to chicken or duck eggs or feathers, or neomycin;

3. Are sick with fever on the day of the clinic;

4. Have received a live virus vaccination such as smallpox, polio, measles within the four weeks before the clinic;

5. Are being treated for cancer or leukemia.

The last major epidemic of rubella occurred in 1964. Health officials note that with the number of cases peaking every six to nine years another epidemic is expected between 1970 and 1973.

Since it is not known what effects the vaccine might have on an unborn child, the vaccine is not advised for women who are pregnant or of child-bearing age. With enough children being immunized against rubella the threat to expectant mothers is greatly reduced, officials said.

Although no charge will be made for the vaccine, contributions will be accepted from those able to help cover the costs of the clinics.

Would Mean $10+ Increase In Milam County

Hearings on auto insurance rates scheduled in Dallas and Houston next week will probably mean a hike in cost of coverage for drivers, many of whom feel the present rates are beyond the average budget. In Milam County a Class 2C auto insurance bill can run as high as $534.

Insurance companies are asking for a 23.4 percent increase to be effective January 1, however local insurers say this would not be an across-the-board percentage increase. Actual rate increases will vary according to the rating territory, types and model years of vehicles, uses of the vehicles and ages of the drivers.

If granted by the State Board of Insurance as requested the rate hike would amount to about a $10 increase for minimum basic auto insurance in Milam County.

Reportedly the Texas insurance industry has requested that bodily injury liability rates increase 1.5 percent, property damage rates 30.9 percent, bodily injury and property damage combined increase 15.3 percent, collision coverage 28.5 percent, and full-coverage comprehensive (fire, theft, wind and hail, etc. insurance) rates 32.5 percent.

Under present rates, an under 25, single, male driver of a late model, low priced sports car in Milam County pays $451 a year for liability, comprehensive and $50 deductible collision insurance. A driver with two speeding violations pays $503. The rate increase could mean an additional $100 cost for this driver.

Insurance for a late model, medium price family car with the same coverage averages $190 a year in Milam County. The requested rate increase would raise this total about $30.

State Rep. Dan Kubiak, who opposes any rate increase, said this week that the insurance industry bases its plan on "a reasonable rate of return on investment." They are asking for a guaranteed profit of 11.7 percent of net worth after taxes and not including investment income.

"The industry, in effect, says that the auto insurance business is risky and barely profitable and insurers should not be forced to include their investment income directly in the auto insurance rate-making formula," Kubiak said. "From the facts we have in our office we disagree," he said. "We feel that investment income should be included and that automobile insurance rates should be stabilized."

State Sen. Oscar Mauzy of Dallas and State Rep. Joe Allen of Baytown have announced intentions to fight the proposed increases. AFL-CIO President Hank Brown of Austin is reported to be considering filing suit in an attempt to stop the insurance board from approving the requested rates.

Rep. Allen said the plan would have "the effect of forcing the policyholders of Texas to subsidize speculative investment by insurance companies."

Sen. Mauzy said the rate-of-return plan would "guarantee insurance companies operating in Texas a profit 90 percent higher than these same companies have earned in the open market in the rest of the nation."

Texas insurance industry spokesmen have said the full increase is needed to insure that an adequate supply of insurance is available.

350 YEARS AGO, the Pilgrims set foot on Plymouth Rock - and a new way of life began. On board the Mayflower, the little band of Pilgrims signed a compact, agreeing to form a local government for the new town of Plymouth, Massachusetts, and to abide by its laws. In the Mayflower Compact, we see the early flowering of democracy in America. As we observe Thanksgiving Day -- yet another legacy from our Pilgrim forefathers -- we can indeed be thankful for our proud heritage, for our American way of life, for freedom and its blessings. Let us then be humbly grateful, and let us reaffirm our faith in freedom, with our determination to preserve and cherish it, forevermore.

ON THE BIG 'EYE'

Already on the map for numerous things, Cameron is going before the television world in Central Texas and perhaps nationwide starting next month.

Yoe High School's band, directed by Dalton Harbers, will perform prior to the Dallas-Washington pro football game 2:45 p.m. Sunday, December 6.

Gametime is 3 p.m. for the Dallas portion of the TV doubleheader, which Harbers said should allow the 6-minute YHS march routine exposure before the nation. Only catch might be if the earlier game extends beyond the pre-game performance of the Yoe band and the Dallas game is cut in after the opening kickoff.

Nevertheless, it is excellent exposure for the band and Cameron before 40,000 to 50,000 people and most likely before millions of others.

More information will be forthcoming on the band's appearance, but the 6-minute routine will include a fanfare and three march numbers.

111-111-111

We are advised also that dance groups for Cameron's Folk Fete are scheduled to appear on four Central Texas channels in early June, 1971, prior to the second Folk Fete during that month.

Co-chairmen Mrs. Perry Holder and Miss Mildred Thornton advise guest appearances are scheduled on Austin, Waco, Temple and Bryan stations.

Their co-operation last year helped publicize various segments of the first Folk Fete, which attracted 4,000 to 5,000, a number which could easily double next June.

111-111-111

Now it may be possible Cameron representatives could receive greater TV exposure at one time than these, but it is difficult to imagine how.

Thus far, dance groups have appeared at Salado, Temple Junior College, State Fair of Texas, Seton Hall and perhaps other attractions since the Folk Fete last June.

Cameron's image in fact is being presented live and in broadcast wherever people congregate to see talent, either in ethnic dance or marching music.

This is not to mention what the print media carried in Folk Fete coverage last year, the example one promising more favorable coverage next June.

111-111-111

Point is literally hundreds of people are telling the Cameron story in a way it will be remembered, attracting the

UNITED FUND TOTALS $7,542

Cash contributions and pledges for the Cameron United Fund now total $7,542, according to UF chairman Bernay Dusek.

Contributions from several local industries are expected to boost the total along with a number of pledge cards that are still out Dusek said.

He asked workers who still have cards to please turn them in with a report, so the drive can be completed.

Interest and growing support for all the endeavors which are a part of Milam's modern makeup.

Artist James Brock is another who tells a part of our story, among others whose efforts collectively reach further than the local view.

It is leadership by example, by excellent example. And a community competing with metropolitan attraction as well as problems is served well by these people. Talent attracts.

'Financing Is Tough' Industrial Group Told

Financing industry in small communities is getting tougher and a state financing program is badly needed, participants agreed at the end of the seventh annual Central Texas Industrial Development Conference held at Baylor University.

Narvie L. Caperton, Cameron Industrial Foundation president, and Mayor E. A. Perrin were among some 120 civic and business - industrial leaders from a five-county area attending the conference.

The participants responded to a special invitation issued by Gov. Preston Smith making it the largest in the seven-year history.

The conference, hosted by Sen. Murray Watson and coordinated by the Texas Industrial Commission with the assistance of the Waco Chamber of Commerce culminated with the consensus that financing industry in small communities is getting tougher and that a state financing program is badly needed, according to Jim Harwell, executive director of TIC, who handled the wrap-up session for the conference.

Harwell and Bill Davis, assistant director of TIC were two of the program participants.

Davis, in his keynote speech said that 8 out of 10 industries today expect communities to offer a package deal, that is land, buildings and a financial arrangement that is attractive to the industry.

Robert Seal, another participant from the Republic National Bank in Dallas said that commercial banks are not interested in long-term financing.

Jim Camp, assistant vice president of the American National Insurance Company in Galveston said insurance companies in general were short on funds and did not care to participate in financing industry for communities under 100,000 population.

Camp was one of the participants

who suggested a need for state industrial financing program.

A representative from the SBA in Dallas, Paul Martin, remarked that recent publicity concerning SBA was out of funds is not entirely true. Martin said SBA is still accepting loan applications and processing them for approval. Additional funds are available as current loans are being repaid. SBA hopes to get their loan funds increased from 1.9 to 2.2 billion in the future, Martin said.

Marvin Hagemeyer, field coordinator for the Economic Development Administration said EDA has funds and is willing to work with small communities. However, he pointed out that the paper work and time involved is not easy.

EDA is willing to provide financing when no conventional source is available, he said.

Elbert Morrow, a bond attorney in Dallas spoke on the application of industrial revenue bonds under the 1963-20 Program for industrial financing. Morrow said that he too, felt a state program of industrial financing was necessary to create more funds needed in industrial development.

Two Choctaw entries shown by Mrs. J. D. Moore and Anton Anderle were selected Grand and Reserve Champions respectively, from the 65 entries at the 10th annual County Pecan Show held in Cameron.

Grand and Reserve Champion entries in the Native division were shown by Mrs. Matt Zarosky, Sr. and Mrs. Jerry Kostroun respectively.

Judges Dan Hanna and George Ray McEachern from A&M complimented the arrangement and decorating committees for setting up an attractive show. According to the judges, the quality of the pecans generally were good especially in the Choctaw, Mohawk, and Desirable classes.

It was difficult to place the 3 entries in these three classes according to the judges. The size of the Native pecans were small, but the quality was good.

The judges placed the pecans according to size, percent kernel, kernel appearance and shell appearance. These characteristics are improved through orchard management, according to the judges.

POW TALK - Interest in Vietnam Prisoner of War conditions rose for Yoe High students following a talk before Honor Society members Tuesday by Mrs. W. A. Hoffman of Washington, D.C., mother of Lt. Arthur Hoffman who is imprisoned in Hanoi, N. Vietnam. She described a diet of pig fat and pumpkin seed soup, torture and solitary confinement that has been the daily fare for some prisoners for more than 5 years. Mrs. Hoffman talked individually to Honor Society students (left to right) Randy Tumlinson, John Ben Sutter, Alva Ray Mullinax, Harry Perrin and Edward Whitley. The students distributed letters in school Wednesday asking world attention on conditions in North Vietnamese prisons.

Support American POW's...

Yoe High School's National Honor Society is taking the area lead for writing letters to Hanoi concerning conditions of 1,500 American POW's. These youngsters are to be congratulated. This is constructive involvement.

They, among thousands in these United States recommend:

ONE--Addressing your letter to Mr. Xuan Thuy, delegation of Democratic Republic of Vietnam, Paris, France.

TWO--Addressing your envelope to Mrs. J. A. Singleton (POW/MIA/Xuan Thuy), State Co-ordinator, 1110 Joymeadow Drive, Dallas, Texas 75218.

Urging:

--Identifying all POW's they hold.

--Releasing all sick and injured POW's to a neutral power.

--Allowing impartial inspections of POW facilities.

--Allow free exchange of mail by POW's and members of their families.

The North Vietnamese government is responsive to world opinion. Indeed, they play upon world opinion as masters in the expertise of Communist dogma.

To top it off, they share an Oriental disregard for the value of individuals, finding it difficult to believe American people are concerned about servicemen lost behind their lines for as long as five years.

This is an understandable, but mistaken judgment of American values. And we are able to prove our belief in individual worth by writing a letter to Xuan Thuy saying so.

YHS's Honor Society contributes a valuable service to this country and better world understanding by this leadership. They deserve the Milam area's support.

At Home, Where It Counts...

Finding out what people really believe in, if anything anymore, is fascinating.

Your Herald's mail of recent weeks suggests that Texas public officials, including those newly elected, acknowledge an informed public is essential.

Herald efforts to inform its readership electorate the past 12 years are thus drawing public-interest responses.

We refer to the some four candidate sections run while weekly through 1968, on candidates of both parties, in primary and general elections. When there is a limited field, we follow campaigns by publishing candidate statements in contested races.

This we did as a semi-weekly during 1970 general elections.

We refer to the response this effort elicited during October and November, this year. Letters acknowledging this effort have come from Governor Smith, Lt-Gov. Ben

Barnes, Senator-elect Lloyd Bentsen and State Rep. Dan Kubiak.

The role of the newspaper, not just this one, has also been noted by the good offices of Senator John Tower and George Bush.

If public opinion polls are an indicator, the electorate of this country wants more information and less oratory. The electorate is generally better informed and is better qualified to make decisions. Regard for issues worthy of public answer is formidable. The public desires to reform our political structure into a responsive instrument for solutions.

As a non-metro newspaper, your Herald has pioneered in this effort. A dozen years some regarded the effort laughable, even partisan. But evidence suggests our effort to serve you, the public, is being recognized, finally, where it counts, at home.

TEA Heads Set Priority Goals For Public Schools

By Vern Sanford

Heads of the Texas Education Agency have set priority goals for public schools during the next two years. They estimate additional state and local costs at more than $362 million.

Highest priority must be assigned to implementing those major educational acts of the 1969 Legislature, says Dr. J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education.

He listed these acts as the 1969 salary compensation (long-range teacher pay raise) plan, a kindergarten program for five-year-olds, comprehensive special education programs, expansion of technical - vocational programs and refinement of the teacher retirement act. Programs are projected over three-to-seven-year period.

As desirable as new or accelerated programs may be, says Edgar, the State Board of Education feels more experience is needed with the 1969 acts and more opportunity should be allowed to invest available resources in presently - authorized goals.

"Next priority," says the Commissioner, "goes to carrying out recommendations of a committee studying changes in school finance formulas, with a view to equalizing funds assigned as the local share of foundation costs."

More than $2 billion will be spent for public elementary and secondary education this year. Estimate for next year is $2.6 billion.

About 2,728,000 pupils now are enrolled, and 2,760,000 will be in classes next year.

Cost of existing programs for next year alone will increase $156 million, while new programs will require an estimated $25 million more.

COURTS SPEAK

Texas Supreme Court will hear arguments on January 13 as to whether a narcotics case can be under joint jurisdiction of criminal and probate courts through the mental health code. In the case at point, a mother tried to commit her daughter who had been convicted of a narcotics violation to a hospital for addiction treatment.

In other recent cases the High Court:

One proposed an expanded public staff for lawmakers and a health or first aid station for the capitol. Another urged an end to the practice of legislators' lending their names to clients or defendants in legal cases just to delay trial.

On December 9, all sub-panel findings will go to the full committee of 150 named by House Speaker Gus Mutscher.

OIL ALLOWABLE CUT

State Railroad Commission ordered a cut in December statewide oil allowable to 83.5 per cent of potential, from the high 87.3 per cent factor.

Action followed four consecutive monthly increases. December limit would allow a maximum production of 3,815,982 barrels of crude daily. That is a reduction from this month's 3,954,193 - barrel maximum.

Three of the 14 big crude buyers requested additional allowable for December. Ten wanted the same figure and one less. U. S. Bureau of Mines forecast a 3,525,000 - barrel daily demand for December. Written nominations by major purchasers totaled 3,425,531 barrels.

Slated arguments for January 20 in a $35,000 damage lawsuit brought by parents of a young Houston boy struck by a car on Galveston Beach four and a half years ago.

Directed the Houston Tour and Charter Service Inc. to stop out of city bus routes operating without a Railroad Commission certificate.

Directed retrial of a Wheeler County case involving whether a Texas Tech student received "general injury" in an oil rig job accident.

Ruled that Maverick County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 (or other political subdivisions) are without power to levy a special assessment against veterans land tract for-felled to the state by the buyer. Found that an Arizona carpet firm which did business with a Texas manufacturer on building projects in the state can be sued in state courts for debt.

LAWMAKER AID, CURBS

Subcommittees of a blue-ribbon committee studying legislators' duties, responsibilities, compensation and ethics are beginning to formulate recommendations.

CRUDE PRICE HIKE

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes told the federal Office of Emergency Preparedness that an announcement by two major oil companies of intention to raise crude oil price 25 cents a barrel is "completely justified."

Lieutenant Governor said reserves of petroleum are lower than during wartime, and a price increase is mandatory if they are to be increased.

ALTERATION TAX POSSIBLE

You can be taxed for alteration charges on clothing where the charge is made at time of purchase, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has held.

However, Calvert said, charges are not subject to sales tax when they are not part of the sale.

"If the alteration is made on a garment prior to acceptance by the customer, the alteration charge is considered a service which is part of the sale and the charge for such alteration is taxable to the customer," said Calvert in an interpretation of sales tax provisions. "Alteration charges on clothing are not taxable when not a part of a sale."

Today less than 30% of the United States population lives in rural areas. Less than 25% of America's 54 million rural residents live on farms and earn their livelihood from agriculture.

The value of United States farm real estate was set at $208.9 billion for year ending March 1, 1970. Per acre value averaged $193 ranging from $36 in Wyoming to $1,028 in New Jersey.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

You know, from time to time in between international crises and on-the-farm obligations, like the time I rode my tractor eight hours straight without stopping trying to get a crop planted before it rained and made it, in fact, made it three months before it rained and the seeds never did sprout, anyway, in my spare time I have devoted a considerable amount of time to trying to figure out a way to play football with both teams winning every game.

What I'm doing is trying to preserve the sport. Like it is, with every game played, from junior high school through college to the professionals, unless it's a tie, half the fans always leave the stands disappointed if not heart-broken. The game is skating on thin ice, so to speak, like the coach who said they were trying to make a political football out of a basketball scandal.

Think, how long would Gun Smoke last if half its audience was always disappointed at the way it ended? Football is a great spectator sport. I follow it on television myself, but if they don't figure out some way to keep fans on both sides happy, it's in trouble.

Regrettably I have never been able to figure out how to change the game so everybody can always come away happy and victorious, both bands playing and everybody slapping everybody else on the back, but I have now done the next best thing.

I have discovered the people who can.

They are the chairman of the Republican Party and the chairman of the Democratic Party.

I read in four different newspapers that each one of these men has claimed that his party won the November elections, and they've made such a good case that nobody in the country is sure which one is right. As a result, everybody thinks his side won, nobody lost, and everybody came away from the polls victorious. I know when I'm out-classed. I turn my football problem over to them.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Gov. Urges Changes To Stop Traffic Deaths

AUSTIN

State officials, headed by Gov. Preston Smith himself, came down hard on the need for significant changes in the law as it applies to traffic safety here this week during the Second Annual Governor's Public Support Conference on Traffic Safety.

Traffic safety "is a problem which outranks crimes such as murder, rape, assault, and civil disorder by at least ten to one in the number of victims," Governor Smith told the group.

"It is time now for us and our fellow Texans to demand the legislation necessary to eliminate the bloodshed, the heart-break and the tragedy caused by careless and irresponsible driving."

The Governor's appeal was re-emphasized by two other officials, Col. Wilson Speir, director of the Department of Public Safety, and Ross Rommel, the state's traffic safety administrator. Both also pointed to the convening of the 62nd Legislature in January, and the need for positive legislative action.

The primary target of the Governor's traffic safety legislative recommendations appear to be the drunk driver, who the Governor said is responsible for one-half the traffic fatalities in Texas. But he was quick to point out that the drunk driver he wants removed from the highway is the problem drinker.

The best analyses information available indicates that less than seven per cent of the more than six million licensed drivers in Texas are responsible for the human toll laid to drunk drivers.

Col. Speir, the state's top law enforcement officials, also expressed his concern about the drunk driver.

"Of cardinal importance is a change in the laws that relate to drunk drivers," Col. Speir said. "Enforcement officers in Texas are frustrated by provisions of the current law which enable drunk drivers to keep on driving."

Dear Mr. Luecke:

I should like to call the attention of your readers to a very special television program, "To All The World's Children," which will be telecast over ABC on Friday evening, November 27th at 7:30 p.m. (6:30 Central Time). This moving and comprehensive film about children of Kenya, Paraguay and Ceylon is a brilliant study of three different cultures, the role of children in each and the role of UNICEF (The United Nations Children's Fund) in all of them.

We who are actively engaged in helping UNICEF help the children of the world are particularly proud to be associated with a television program of such high artistic, educational, social and entertainment value which, for once, is being programmed perfectly for family viewing.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Don Marquart

"Low Down" FROM THE Congressional Record

By JOE CRUMP

(A Column for Readers Who Haven't Time to Review the Congressional Record Daily)

TAXPAYERS SUBSIDIZE SHIFTY FOUNDATION

REP. W.G. BRAY (Ind.) "...The American taxpayer does not know it, but he is subsidizing the rantings and ravings of one of the foulest, most inflammatory revolutionaries of the new left."

"Jerry Rubin, member of the infamous Chicago Seven and one of those convicted of conspiracy in crossing State lines to incite riot, stands to make no one knows how many thousands of dollars both from his speeches and public appearances, and from his book...Let me quote a few of Rubin's statements from the book: 'To steal from the rich is a sacred and religious act...Burn Down the Schools. Two hundred psychological terrorists could destroy any major university -- without firing a shot.'"

"In 1969, Rubin's wife, who goes by the name of Nancy Kurshan, filled out some routine IRS forms that led to official IRS recognition of the "SOCIAL EDUCATION FUND," as a charitable, tax-exempt organization. The "foundation" said the untaxable fund and its income would be used---

Exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals.

"On June 11, 1969, the trust was amended so it could also be referred to as the "JERRY RUBIN FUND." Grantor and sole trustee is Nancy Kurshan, Rubin's wife.

"Advantages of such status to Rubin are many. Actual income is safe from STATE and FEDERAL income taxes...

"And as has also been pointed out, Rubin's income going into the foundation would protect him from possible damage suits arising from disturbances he might have caused. Technically, he could claim to have no money at all--and under the law he would be correct.

"As the Internal Revenue Code now stands, believe it or not, all this is perfectly legal. The most the IRS can do--and are doing--at this time is to see if Rubin has violated a provision of the law requiring annual reports of income and expenditures...

"No American should have to subsidize Jerry Rubin. Our taxes pay for many things, but they do not have to pay to support a litany of hate, violence, and outright incitement to revolution..."

REP. R.H. ICHORD (Mo.) "...The foundation's first annual report of income and expenditures was due last May 15, but IRS officials say they have no record of its submission.

"It is my understanding that the regulations do authorize the revocation of the tax-exempt status for failure to file timely reports..."

Temple Med Group Nixes Newton Hospital Project

A committee of Bell County medical personnel reviewed an application for Newton Memorial Hospital for a Hill-Burton Fund expansion grant and reported the project was "inconsistent with overall regional planning efforts."

The committee, appointed by the Central Texas Council of Governments, included Dr. John Bryson, chairman, Health Center in Temple, Dr. Charles Livingston, Temple VA Hospital administrator, Dr. Bill Lorette, Temple general practitioner, Lewis Remy, administrator, Santa Fe Hospital, Temple, and Dick Epperson, administrator, King's Daughters Hospital, Temple.

Request for assistance in a planned $1,200,000 expansion project had been made by Newton Memorial Hospital to Hill-Burton Funds through the Texas State Department of Health. The review by CTCOG is a recent requirement by state agencies for public projects that will effect regional planning.

Milam County is in the Central Texas Council region, but is not a member of the council or represented on the CTCOG board.

The review committee report said the group had met twice, one time prior to the inspection visit in Cameron. The committee spent one day in Cameron investigating the proposed project with approximately half the day spent with Dr. Newton and looking at the Newton Memorial Hospital facilities. The remainder of the day was spent visiting local doctors and the administrator and personnel at St. Edward Hospital.

The committee report said in part: "After much study and evaluation found the proposed project to be inconsistent with other regional planning developments in the Central Texas Region. The committee felt that the project represented a duplication of efforts by the Newton Memorial Hospital. The newly constructed St. Edward Hospital will provide many of the services proposed by the Newton Memorial Hospital Project. The project as presently proposed is inconsistent with total regional health care efforts."

Findings of the committee were forwarded by the Central Texas Council of Governments to state and federal agencies.

Saccharin Use Is Safe, Study Shows

Saccharin poses no hazards in the quantities it is likely to be used, reports Minnie Bell Extension specialist in family life education at Texas A&M University.

The information is the result of a study on saccharin usage by a committee of the National Academy of Science and the National Research Council.

According to the committee reports, Miss Bell says, a safe level of about 12 to 18 quarter grain tablets per day may be used by adults. Actual usage is likely to fall far below the safety standard.

The use of saccharin covers an 80 year period. During World War I, heavy use of the sweetener in England and Germany has produced no adverse effects.

A recent cancer mortality study involving over 21,000 diabetics using saccharin showed no increased risk of cancer over a period of 28 years, the report showed.

Miss Bell added that the committee did recommend further investigation of specific items related to saccharin's long-term effects.

Mexican Baptists Say 'Thanks' For Dedication Help

The congregation of the new Primera Iglesia Bautista expressed their appreciation to all friends of the church who helped make last Sunday's dedication a success.

The new church, located south of Cameron across from the radio station, was originally the Burlington Baptist Church. The building was moved to Cameron and completely remodeled, with brick exterior and modern furnishings.

A spokesman for the congregation said the help of Rev. James E. Lafferty, First Baptist pastor, was especially appreciated.

Texas Trees In Quantity

Texas has lots of most everything including trees.

The average person can probably name 15 to 20 species native to our state. First named could well be oak. There are 18 types of oaks in Texas. Then there is pine. We have seven varieties in the state. You might overlook such native Texas trees as paw-paw, two-wing silverbell, sassafras or fringetree, but you certainly would think of pecan, mesquite and elm.

A Bulletin of the Texas Forest Service of Texas A&M, "Forest Trees of Texas", lists 138 different types of trees native to our state.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Bertram S. Brown, M.D.
Director
National Institute of Mental Health

Schizophrenia

This disease, or group of diseases, commonly known as the mental illness which involves "split-personality," is certainly one of the most serious disorders of our times.

More than 200,000 Americans are presently hospitalized with schizophrenia, occupying nearly half of the beds in the nation's mental hospitals.

Schizophrenia costs the United States some $14 billion each year, according to estimates of the National Association for Mental Health.

These figures tell only part of the story of the magnitude of schizophrenia and the suffering it causes.

Because the disease usually begins in late adolescence or early adulthood and may result in repeated hospitalizations or chronic institutionalization throughout an individual's most productive years, its costs in terms of personal suffering and loss of productivity are devastating.

This is why we have mounted an increasing attack through research on schizophrenia and why we recently held an international conference, in Washington, of nearly 100 of the world's leading experts on schizophrenia.

The purpose of the meeting was to identify research findings which have relevance for the actual treatment of patients. The results of the conference will help guide and improve clinical practices and treatment.

Although our knowledge is far from complete, we do know a good deal about the causes of schizophrenia today. New techniques have made it possible for many victims to leave mental institutions and return to their communities.

We must, therefore, find out how we can detect and treat schizophrenia in its early stages. The recent conference made an important contribution to this and other aspects of the problem.

Alert Is Sounded For '71 Southern Corn Blight

COLLEGE STATION — The Southern Corn Leaf Blight situation, talk of the country for many weeks, will probably be big news again in 1971.

Losses in Texas due to Southern Corn Leaf Blight were minimal during 1970, with serious infections in only a few fields. Dr. C. Wendell Horne, Extension plant pathologist at Texas A&M, says. He adds, however, that there is a good chance of having more serious infestations during 1971.

"Hybrids susceptible to the blight will have to be grown again in 1971 because sufficient quantities of resistant seed lots aren't yet available," Horne said.

"Corn breeders are doing everything they can to insure a sufficient quantity of resistant seed stock for 1972, but there is no way for sufficient quantities to be made available for the 1971 season," he said. The disease spreads rapidly in a field once it begins to occur, and although fungicides may be used to control the disease, they are usually impractical because of the high cost involved.

What can the farmer do? "If he plans to plant his 1971 crop on the same land as his 1970 crop, the stubble should be turned under deeply to remove as much of the fungus as possible, assuming that the disease occurred during 1970," Horne said.

He should also learn as much about the disease as possible so that production techniques can be adjusted to reduce damage.

If a resistant hybrid is available, it is suggested that the farmer plant as much as he can obtain to fill his crop needs, and to take other suggested steps to lessen potential damage to susceptible hybrids from the disease.

ASCS NEWS

By Alva E. Sanders

Payments will be made beginning about the first of April on marketings of wool and mohair completed in 1970 and reported by January 31, 1971. The 1970 marketing year under the wool and mohair program ends December 31.

Wool payments are based on the difference between the incentive price (72 cents per pound for shorn wool marketed in 1970) and the average national price for marketings during the year. Wool and mohair sales made after December 31, 1970 will not be eligible for payment until 1972.

Incentive payments are made through ASCS county offices to all eligible producers who file applications and present the necessary sales receipts and other records.

Producers are reminded that sales documents must show all details of the sale were completed during the current marketing year -- including passing title to the buyer. There must also be a record showing either actual delivery or transfer of control of the wool or mohair to the buyer. The buyer's total purchase price must be clearly stated, also.

Proof of ownership for at least 30 days is an important requirement.

To be eligible for payments, producers must own for at least 30 days the livestock from which the wool or mohair was shorn and the unshorn lambs on which they apply for payment. Records must be presented which clearly establish compliance with the 30-day ownership requirement.

Requests for 1970 marketing year payments under the National Wool Act may be filed with the Milam County ASCS Office as soon as the sales documents are available, but should be filed no later than January 31, 1971, to ensure early payment.

Over 70 years after man started to control it, the boll weevil still costs the United States cotton farmer $300 million in crop losses annually and $75 million in pest control.

Bill Seeks Expansion Of Animal Welfare Law

WASHINGTON

Legislation designed to expand existing law concerning humane treatment of animals was approved unanimously today by the Livestock and Grains Subcommittee of the House Committee on Agriculture.

Drafted after months of consideration and public hearings, the measure has the combined support of animal welfare organizations, scientific groups and government officials who administer the present law and will have their authority broadened.

Coverage would be extended to include animals handled by wholesale pet dealers, zoos, road shows and auction markets.

Humane standards for care and treatment of animals undergoing experimentation at medical research facilities would be established. Exempt from coverage would be animals on farms, and those displayed at county fairs, 4-H clubs and similar events.

Subcommittee Chairman Granham Purcell, D-Tex., expressed hope that the bill entitled "Animal Welfare Act of 1970" can be enacted into law during the present session of Congress.

He noted that it combines the essential provisions of measures sponsored by Rep. Tom Foley, D-Wash., and Rep. William G. Whitehurst, R-Va. A new bill embodying numerous approved amendments will be introduced by Purcell to facilitate handling, and both as co-sponsors as will other subcommittee members.

Application of existing humane animal treatment law is limited to dogs, cats, hamsters, guinea pigs, rabbits, and non-human primates and only under certain circumstances.

Generally speaking, the pending legislation broadens this coverage to all warm-blooded animals and broadens the areas of application of the existing statutes.

During his November 16 stop at Rockdale Works, the country's largest primary aluminum smelter, Wagner said that "Because of our large capital investment in many engineering and maintenance projects currently underway at all three locations (Rockdale, Point Comfort Operations, and Marshall Works), we have a great deal at stake and must make every effort at every level in the company to see that progress and completion of projects proceed on schedule -- especially in times of keen competition, like the present."

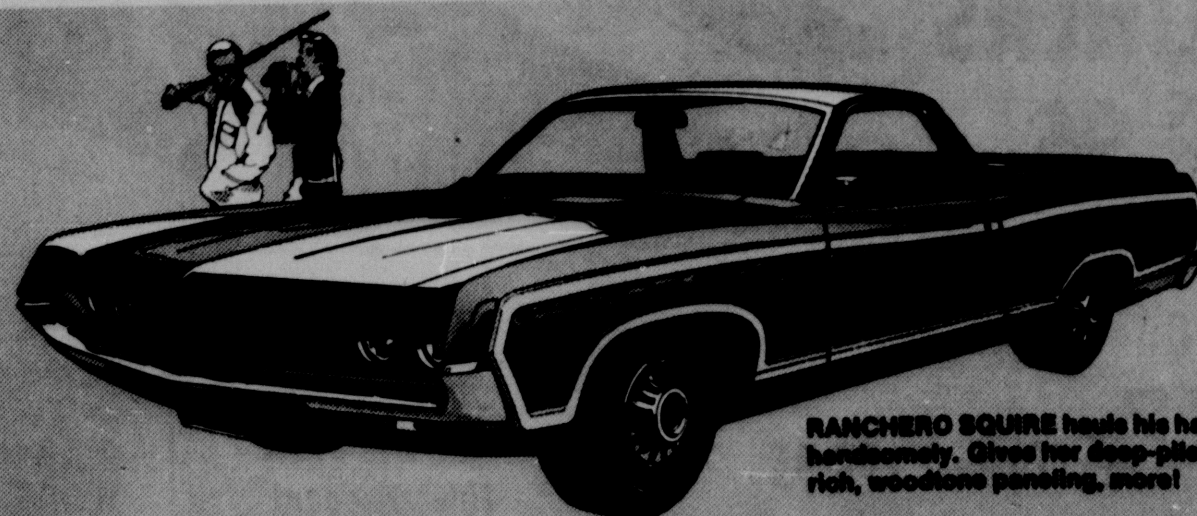

Wagner spent considerable time in Rockdale in the early 50's when construction was underway on the original four-pot-

NEW TECHNOLOGY

TEXAS POWER & LIGHT COMPANY
A tax-paying, investor-owned electric utility

In order to continue to provide reliable electric service to all customers, TP&L is constantly seeking ways to improve construction techniques. New methods help improve service and help TP&L keep electric rates at the lowest possible level.

However, like its customers, TP&L is feeling the money pinch, too. Increases in the cost of borrowing money for expansion, increased costs of materials, increased fuel costs for generating electricity, increased taxes and TP&L wage increases have placed a heavy burden on the Company to maintain electric rates at the level of the 1950's.

Nevertheless, in the future the Company pledges to provide an ample supply of electric power for all customers—at a continued reasonable cost.

Yoe Cagers Nip Marlin In Opener

Robinson Drops 3 To Yoe Teams

The cage Yoemen Saturday night at Marlin almost doubled the score in the season opener against the Marlin Bulldogs, 53-29.

It was the final of three Yoe team wins over the Marlin teams. The junior varsity defeated Marlin JV, 53-41 and the Yoe Frosh downed the Marlin Frosh, 33-23.

Guard Robert Brashear swooshed 30 points, including 13 goals from the field and four foul shots, to lead all scoring.

Top Marlin scorer was Lang with 9 followed by Davis with 8.

Other Yoe varsity scoring was divided among Richardson with 7, Zajicek with 5 and Prokisch and Johnson with 4 each.

Cameron led 19 to 10 at the half, hit 16 points and 18 points in the final two quarters as Brashear hit from all angles.

Junior varsity scoring saw Jack Chubb hit 12, Ed Kohutek

11, David Hornung 10 and Will Turner and Pat Schigut 9 each.

David Hollas with 10 and John Barron with 9 led freshman scoring against Marlin.

Badgerettes Win 61-20 Over Oglesby

The Buckholts Badgerettes gave the Oglesby Tigers a pounding at Buckholts Gym Monday night by a score of 61-20.

Becky Beckhusen led the way for the Badgerettes with 24 points.

Along with her scoring was Debra McNeill with 20, Martha Vaculin with 14, Debra Ruzicka with 2, and Jo Ann Beckhusen with 1.

High scorer for Oglesby was Kathy Jayroe with 10 points. In the B game, Oglesby went home with a 20-18 victory over the Badgerettes.

High pointer for Buckholts was Jessie Webb with 8. Added to her scoring was Lanell Allison with 5, Marcia Barkemeyer with 3, and Nancy Vaculin with 2. High pointer for Oglesby was Jane McKelvin with 7.

A ragged third quarter Tuesday night is the only reason the Yoemen score was no higher as Robinson bowed on their home-court, 62-56.

Coach Ron Murdock said the Yoemen are trying to find an opponent for Friday or Saturday night. A scheduled game with Gatesville has been cancelled because Gatesville is still in football playoffs. And a proposed rematch with Robinson this weekend failed to develop.

Robert Brashear led scoring with 23 points, followed by Ken McLerran's 15 in the second road trip in four days for the Yoemen and the second win.

The junior varsity racked the Robinson JV by a similar score, 63-55. Jackie Chubb scoring 17, Pat Schigut 16 and Will Turner 14. The Yoe Frosh made it a clean sweep for the evening with a 40-34 win, David Hollas scoring 18.

McLerran, Dean Prokisch and Brashear broke for some stolen baskets during the Robinson contest.

Cameron shots went in 42 percent of the time the first half, but the average dropped to 25 percent the second. Yoemen could hit only 8 points in the third quarter after having a 11-point lead at the half.

Scoring was 17 for the Yoe, 15 for Robinson in the second half. Robinson's Gary Ellison hit 15 and Don Snider hit 14 points in the losing effort.

Scores by quarters:	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	Final
Yoemen	20	17	8	17	62
Robinson	12	14	15	15	56

Western Artist At Fort Fisher

Frank O. Lyon, western sculptor from Taos, N.M., and friend of Cameron artist James Brock, will be in Cameron during a three-day showing of Lyon's work at Waco's Fort Fisher, Texas Ranger Museum.

Lyon opened the first bronze foundry in the New Mexico art colony three years ago and is casting bronzes sculpted by Brock, who also is learning the process.

Lyon will be a guest at a benefit sale of his sculpture at Waco Texas Ranger Museum, December 4-5-6.

Twenty-five percent of all cash sales will go to the museum fund. Lyon will explain his work as a sculptor and bronze founder during the three-day show.

Lyon was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., and brought up in Connecticut. He has worked as a blacksmith, master gunsmith and with metals of all kinds. He studied at Whitney School of Art in New Haven, Conn., and Los Angeles Chouinard Art Institute.

He works in canvas, stone, wood and sheet metal, but finds bronze sculpture's versatility a favorite material.

His Western sculpture follows the line of Brock's work, cowboys, Indians and Western animals.

Having sold works for a number of years, Lyon has a permanent gallery, "The Golden Lion" in Taos. His work is on display throughout the country.

WAGE UNDERPAYMENTS

HIS HAND

On the ceiling of Sistine Chapel, Michelangelo brings to life some of the most spectacular Old Testament depictions. In one panel portraying the Creation, he shows God reaching out His powerful right hand to Adam, thereby sending out that necessary spark of life which began the history of man. In this familiar scene, the figure of God emanates such power and force that it seems to dominate the rest of the picture. It even diminishes the agony and passion of Adam, the embodiment of longing, searching and lost mankind. Yes, if we were to examine the picture more fully, we would see that not only is God reaching out to Adam, but Adam is also reaching out to touch God. He is virtually straining every fiber in his body to affect this two-way interchange. Michelangelo said it all with the deft strokes of his brush. All too often we are aware that the huge, powerful, healing hand of God, is reaching out to us without realizing that His hand won't reach all the way. Just like Adam, we must reach out in return. God's open hand is waiting --- where is yours?

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

Unique among the scientific activities in the southwestern part of the nation is the production of human immunizing biologicals by the Texas State Department of Health.

The Biologics Production Division of the State Health Department laboratory is one of thirteen major producers of human immunizing agents in the United States--nine commercial manufacturers and four states' health department laboratories.

Most states buy immunizing biologicals from one of the nine commercial producers. The only state health department laboratories which produce some or all of their immunization products are Michigan, Illinois, and Massachusetts.

The Texas laboratory furnishes several vaccines for public health immunization programs within the state. In the event of epidemics or natural disaster, the lab maintains a large stock of finished vaccine such as small-ture instructed the lab to prepare rabies vaccine, diphtheria toxoid, and typhoid vaccine.

Biologics are sent to city and county health officers throughout the state for use in low income groups or to combat existing or pending epidemics.

The Biologics Production Division of the State Laboratory operates under the regulations of the National Institute of Health in Washington, D. C. The products are given extensive testing in the Austin laboratory and are then submitted to the control laboratory in Washington for final testing before they are released for use.

All biologicals, including those offered for sale by the commercial manufacturers, must undergo this process.

You should see him in person.

Max McClaren Named To Voc Advisory Committee

Max McClaren of Cameron represented Milam County at a meeting of the newly named Region VI Vocational Advisory Committee in Huntsville last week. The group elected officers, and recommended guide lines for future commitments of the Service Center in making vocational education plans.

L. K. Westmoreland of Huntsville was named chairman of the Advisory group. Henry Bonorden of Hearne is vice - chairman, and Mrs. Lena Landry, secretary.

Service Center executive director Max Schlottter explained the need and purpose of the Vocational Advisory Committee. Senator William Moore discussed

"Trends We May Expect in State and Federal Vocational Education Legislation in the 70's."

Dean Suler Ryan of Sam Houston State University outlined the areas of mutual concern in vocational training and the need for cooperation and coordination of efforts between the Service Center, Sam Houston State University, Texas A&M University, the public schools, other institutions and agencies, and business and industry.

The Vocational Advisory Committee includes a wide diversity of occupational and educational expertise with members throughout the area served by Region VI Education Service Center.

Savings Bond Is Gift Idea

"This year, U. S. Savings Bonds make better - than - ever Christmas gifts," Rex Brack, Texas Chairman for the Treasury's Savings Bonds Program, said today. "The interest rate is higher than ever, and the popular E Bond has a shorter-than-ever maturity period."

The recently announced 1/2-percent bonus brings the effective rate of interest on Bonds bought today to 5 1/2 percent if held to maturity - and E Bonds now mature in only 5 years, 10 months.

There are other reasons for buying Savings Bonds as gifts, Brack pointed out. "You don't have to worry about style, size, shape, or color. And they're priced to fit almost any pocketbook. They're indestructible - if lost, stolen, mutilated, or destroyed, the Treasury will replace them free of charge. They're patriotic, too."

Poage Views Debate On National Trade Barriers

The merits of protectionism versus free trade has been debated a long time, Cong. W. R. Poage said in his newsletter this week, but absolute "free trade" would produce a "terrible and intolerable situation," according to the Congressman.

Poage said that "it is clear that for a long time we are going to continue to impose trade barriers whether these barriers be in the form of tariffs, quotas, or rebates."

"Most of us feel that we should, as far as practical, trade with those who trade with us," he continued, "although many of us don't recognize just what countries are buying the largest share of our production."

He cited these examples: Western Europe and Japan take about one-fifth of all the agricultural products we produce, and Australia spends several times as much buying American products as we do buying products from them.

"On the other hand, some of the South American countries sell us a great deal more than we sell to them," Poage said. South Korea buys all of her raw cotton from the United States, while Hong Kong buys but 29 percent.

"Yet we are allowing Hong Kong to sell almost 10 times as much cotton goods in the United States as South Korea," Poage said. "I think when we are determining limits on the goods foreign nations can bring in that we should give consideration to what they buy from us."

The average farmer has more machine horsepower working for him than the average factory worker.
